

LECTORS

Lectors proclaim the Word of God at Mass in a meaningful way. Lectors are trained and given workbooks to study the Scripture passages they will proclaim so the readings will be understood by the congregation and people will be challenged to change their lives.

New lectors are always welcome. Training will be provided.