

The Life of a... Modern Day Missioner

Juan Gomez is a Maryknoll Lay Missioner from Colombia. He now lives and works primarily with youth in the rural area of San Cristóbal, El Salvador where the community makes its living on survival farming. Juan graduated from New Jersey Institute of Technology in 2011 with a BS in Industrial Engineering, and worked as a manufacturing engineer after graduation.

The Life of a... Modern—Day Missioner

Sunday, June 11

12:00p - 1:30p
St Michael Hall
33 Elm Street, Fort Loramie, OH

Meet Juan and hear his story as a Maryknoll Lay Missioner in El Salvador and on the life-changing relationships that develop in the community he lives. A light lunch will be provided.

Invite a friend to learn more about Maryknoll, being a lay missioner, supporting lay missioners, and participating with a dynamic mission awareness program called “Friends Across Borders”. “FAB” is a short term global mission trip to deepen and enrich your understanding of mission worldwide.

Twinning in El Salvador

Fruits of a Twinning Relationship

Tuesday, June 13

7:00 - 8:30p
St. Michael Hall, Fort Loramie

Juan lives and works in San Cristobal, El Salvador which is the sister parish community of Ss. Peter & Paul and St Michael. The twinning teams are working on building solidarity through delegations to Ohio and to El Salvador, through conversations on social media, and mutual projects like El Programa de Inglés. Juan and members of delegations to El Salvador will share insight on this relationship and strategies on building global solidarity. Mass begins at St Michael Church at 6:30pm. The program begins after mass. All are welcome!
